Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-24 are pending and allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Hitchcock (US 6,345,278) teaches A forms engine allows data sharing between customizable on-line forms, such as college admissions applications. After an applicant completes an application, the data is saved in a database and automatically populates fields in subsequent application forms. Each form is branded for its institution and forms for different institutions differ in appearance and content so that the presence of the third party service is transparent to the applicant. The system is extensible without programming, allowing new applicant attributes to be readily incorporated into the system and allowing the content and appearance of the application to be readily changed by changing the description file. Information stored about each attribute allows the specification of data validation rules and data sharing and grouping rules, as well as dependency rules that permit application page content to depend on applicant's responses on a previous page.

In regarding to independent claims 1, 8, 15 and 20, Hitchcock taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or render obvious the client system uses the at least a portion of the consumer loan application data received from the server system to pre-populate at least one data field corresponding to a subsequent user interface display of the sequence of user interface displays for display to the user, wherein the client system subsequently generates the subsequent user interface display to include the at least the portion of the consumer loan application data communicated by the server system.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
